FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of: Wire Fraud, Aiding and Abetting 18 U.S.C. §§ 1343, 2(a); Aggravated Identity Theft, Aiding and Abetting 18 U.S.C. §§ 1028A(a)(1), 2(a).

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Charlene Castrejon, is hereby committed on Count(s) 26 and 36 of the Indictment to the custody of Bureau of Prisons for a term of FORTY-EIGHT (48) MONTHS. This term consists of TWENTY-FOUR (24) MONTHS on Count 26, and TWENTY-FOUR (24) MONTHS on Count 36 to be served consecutively.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $563,587.47 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663.

///
///
///

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim Name	Amount of Loss
Internal Revenue Service	$563,587.47

A partial payment of $20,000 shall be paid immediately. The balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $100, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

As to the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment, the defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendants, Raymond Salazar, Rebecca Mona Sandoval and Robert Manual Gamboa, Jr. to the extent that each is convicted and determined liable for the same victim losses. The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of its loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victim receives full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of two years. This term consists of two years on Count 26 and one year on Count 36, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Office and General Order 18-10, including the conditions of probation and supervised release set forth in Section III of General Order 18-10.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, nor shall the defendant use, any name other than her true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.

4. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
5. The defendant shall submit her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers [as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)], cell phones, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, office, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of her supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at or before 12 noon, on May 13, 2019. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the United States District Court, 3470 Twelfth Street, Room G-122, Riverside, CA 92501.

The Court recommends that the defendant be designated to a Bureau of Prisons facility located in southern California.

Bond is ordered exonerated upon surrender.

Remaining Counts are dismissed in the interest of justice.

The defendant was informed of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
